Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish:

Morning Prayer today (Tuesday, January 18) included Psalm 43. Each time it comes around every four weeks, I recall serving Mass in Latin in the early hours of a school morning at St. Andrew. I recall Father Dave Lawler (the first priest for whom I served), Fathers Matt Herold and Bill Fischer, among others; good priests, a variety of personalities, and surely men dedicated to parish ministry.

After processing with the priest from the sacristy and genuflecting, the priest would place the chalice, host, paten, corporal purificator, and pall – all draped as a unit with the chalice veil of same design as the priest wore for that Mass. We servers waited for the priest to descend the stairs, and, kneeling would begin with the sign of the cross. Then we would quote (in Latin) from Psalm 43. The verse highlighted below in these select verses from the psalm are the English translation.

O send forth your light and your truth; *
let these be my guide.
Let them bring me to your holy mountain *
to the place where you dwell.

And I will come to the altar of God, *
the God of my joy.

My redeemer, I will thank you on the harp, *

I pray that all of us, coming to the altar of God each weekend – and for some folks, on a weekday – will see themselves coming to ask for God's light and truth to guide them as we come to the "holy mountain" of our parish church, to the altar of God who is our joy!

Last week I shared the Serenity Prayer by Reinhold Niebuhr. A parishioner sent to me a "version" of that prayer. This version, by Father James Martin, SJ, is very personal. I would assume it comes from Father Martin's spiritual journey, in part through the daily examen of the Jesuits. Perhaps it will stir your spirit, as well.

O God, my God. God, grant me the serenity to accept the people I cannot change,
which is pretty much everyone,
since I'm clearly not you, God.
At least not the last time I checked.

And while you're at it, God,
please give me the courage to change what I need to change about myself,
which is frankly a lot, since, once again,
I'm not you, which means I'm not perfect.
It's better for me to focus on changing myself
than to worry about changing other people,
who, as you'll no doubt remember me saying,
I can't change anyway.

Finally, give me the wisdom to just shut up whenever I think that I'm clearly smarter than everyone else in the room,
that no one knows what they're talking about except me,
or that I alone have all the answers.

Basically, God,
grant me the wisdom
to remember that I'm not you.
Amen

Fr. Rick

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear OLL Families,

The students enjoyed a shorter week of school as we observed MLK Day on Monday. We hope our families had a nice 3-day weekend. Reminder: Our school will be using an auto-enrollment process this year. This process has been described in detail via Jupiter communications. If you are returning to OLL next year, there is nothing you need to do. Your children will be registered automatically, and you will be billed the early registration fee through FACTS. If you are not returning, please email me at ckolakovich@ollindy.org.

Have you seen the Open House advertisements on Facebook or Instagram? We need your help in spreading the word about our school Open House on Sunday, January 30 from 11:00-12:30. Please share these posts! We do have several families signed up, and we would like to have more. For Covid-safety reasons, families will sign up for a specific time to visit. This can be done on the admissions page of our school website or by clicking the link provided in our social media ads. Tours of the school and registration information will be given to prospective families. There will also be information and representation from a number of different parish and school groups, including Athletics, Scouts, PTO, OLL Parish, and more. Please remind prospective families that financial aid is available to those who qualify.

Catholic School Week is January 30-February 4. Though Covid limits some of what we can do, we still plan on celebrating with a variety of dress-out days, edible treats, and other fun activities. Our CSW Committee has developed a plan for each day, and this will be communicated in more detail next week.

Thank you to our parents and alumni for participating in our strategic planning survey process. The School Commission will use the feedback received to help set school goals for the future.

Here is a reminder of our latest Covid protocol based on ISDH guidelines. We appreciate your ongoing cooperation and communication with the school office.

If a student tests positive:

Stay home for 5 days (isolate).
Return to school on day 6 if asymptomatic or symptoms are resolving.
A negative test after day 5 is recommended but not required.

If a student is exposed to someone with Covid-19 in the classroom:

Student may remain in the classroom as long as he/she continues to be asymptomatic.
If symptoms develop, get a test and stay home. If positive, follow isolation guidance. If negative, return to school when symptoms have resolved.

If a student is exposed outside of the classroom in an unmasked environment:

Fully vaccinated students may remain in school as long as they remain asymptomatic.
If symptoms develop, get a test and stay home. If positive, follow isolation guidance. If negative, return to school once symptoms have resolved.
Unvaccinated (or partially vaccinated) students stay home for 5 days.
Unvaccinated students may return to class on Day 6 if asymptomatic.

Sincerely,
Chris Kolakovich
Principal

“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared...”
(NEHEMIAH 8:10)

Ezra’s instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and through our Stewardship to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here’s the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

Is Your Family Growing?
The Catholic Church has a rite of blessing for babies in the womb...no need to wait until baptism to receive God’s peace and love! Talk with Matthew in the office for a blessing after the Mass.
