Whatever you do to the least of these, you do unto me (Mt 25:40)

Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live for ever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.

- Pope Francis

Adults, Join the Summer Reading Series!

This will be the summer of C.S. Lewis! We will read The Screwtape Letters first, and gather to discuss the book on July 8, and enjoy food together. Next will be The Great Divorce, about which we will share our impressions and a meal on August 26. This famous author makes good insights into our spiritual lives without reading like a textbook. Please register on the parish website, or find a form on the bulletin board in the chapel entrance, for one or both books so that we can keep in touch with you about meeting plans and to share discussion questions. Sign up at: <https://form.jotform.com/221163621021034>

THE SUMMER OF C.S. LEWIS

A clarification for readers: each participant is responsible to procure their own copy of the two books (The Screwtape Letters, The Great Divorce). Anyone is welcome to join our summer reading group. Just register on the parish website!

Share What the Eucharist Means to You

What does the Eucharist, the Real Presence of Christ available to us, mean in your life? How is it most meaningful for you? Please share your personal experience with our Sunday Religious Education students to help form their own faith; a 2-minute time frame will be sufficient. Matthew is scheduling one-to-two parishioners to give this SRE effort legs, beginning next September.

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.”

We like to celebrate that we are free to “live the good life.” We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to Stewardship. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God’s work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Have you ever felt uncertain what the readings were saying in the Liturgy of the Word during Mass? Imagine what a young child must think! Children’s Liturgy of the Word is for young parishioners from Kindergarten to second grade, to hear the readings in wording they can understand. Can you help once a month to proclaim the Word to our young disciples and to talk about what it means for our lives? Preparation resources will be provided. Call/email Matthew Fallon about serving the parish in this way.

COMMUNION CALLS

If you know someone who would like to receive Holy Communion at home, please call the parish office at 317-356-7291.

SRE: Sunday Religious Education

The main purpose of the Church is to evangelize – to spread the Good News of the Gospel to others. We have young parishioners who need to learn of the love and salvation of God; can you help them to know, love, and serve Him? Join our leaders of Sunday religious education! Part-time or full-time, talk with Matthew about what the position entails.
