Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

In one week, we embark on our year of Eucharistic Revival. It will stretch to the National Eucharistic Congress, July 17-21, 2024. Our Archdiocese is the host, though the organizing is national in its scope. We are blessed, indeed privileged, to welcome up to 80,000 Catholics to our city.

First, though, we as a parish shall “revive” our own faith and attachment to the great mystery of the Eucharist, the connecting and consistent gift of Jesus’ real presence!

As we prepare for the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ next weekend, I offer for reflection this writing from an ancient fourth century text by St. Cyril of Jerusalem.

“Next the priest says: ‘Holy things to the holy.’ Holy are the offerings after they have received the visitation of the Holy Spirit; and you are holy after you have been privileged to receive the Holy Spirit. So things and person correspond: Both are holy. Next you say: ‘One is holy, one is the Lord, Jesus Christ.’ For truly One only is holy – holy, that is, by nature; yet we are also holy, not, indeed, by nature, but by participation, training and prayer.

“After this you hear the chanter inviting you with a sacred melody to communion in the holy mysteries, in the words: ‘O taste and see that the Lord is good.’ Entrust not the judgment to your bodily palate, but to unwavering faith. For in tasting you taste, not bread and wine, but the antitypical body and blood of Christ.

“Coming up to receive, therefore, do not approach with your wrists extended or your fingers splayed, but making your left hand a throne for the right (for it is about to receive a King) and cupping your palm, so receive the Body of Christ; and answer ‘Amen.’ Carefully hallow your eyes by the touch of the sacred body, and then partake, taking care to lose no part of it. Such a loss would be like a mutilation of your own body. Why, if you had been given gold dust, would you not take the utmost care to hold it fast, not letting a grain slip through your fingers, lest you be by so much the poorer? How much more carefully, then, will you guard against losing so much as a crumb of that which is more precious than gold or precious stones!

“After partaking of the body of Christ, approach also the chalice of his blood. Do not stretch out your hands, but, bowing low in a posture of worship and reverence as you say, ‘Amen,’ sanctify yourself by receiving also the blood of Christ. While it is still warm on your lips, moisten your fingers with it and so sanctify your eyes, your forehead, and other organs of sense. Then wait for the prayer and give thanks to the God who has deigned to admit you to such high mysteries.”

From “The Fathers of the Church: The Works of Saint Cyril of Jerusalem, as found in Liturgy: A Sourcebook About Liturgy, LTP, 1994)

Why Be a Catechist?

Here is one reason from veteran catechist Rachael Oesterling: "When my boys were young I wanted to volunteer to have a better understanding on what they were being taught. I was not raised Catholic and converted when my oldest was 2. So I had a lot to learn! Through the years I have done just that. Through teaching each week I feel more rooted in my faith and love that I am having a positive impact on the students I am teaching. Are you looking for a way to give some of your talents, but you don't have a lot of time? We would love to have you on our team! I guarantee you will find that you too will learn more than you teach!" Talk with Matthew about getting ready to help with Sunday morning religious education meetings.

Introduction to the Devout Life

St. Francis deSales didn't just cater to super-Catholics. He was interested in the spiritual growth of the average person. Read his book, Introduction to the Devout Life, on your own this summer and join us for a dinner and discussion of the book on July 29. Contact Matthew to get preview questions and a 'study guide' for the book.

On June 11, all parishes in the United States will commence the “Parish Year” of the Eucharistic Revival.

Here at Our Lady of Lourdes, we will be celebrating the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. On Sunday, June 11, we will conclude the 10 a.m. Mass with a Eucharistic Procession (mostly on our property), reenter church, and conclude with Benediction of the Eucharist.

What we will do in our “revival” efforts throughout the year is in the planning stages. Pray for those who have taken on the task of providing prayerful, thoughtful times for us!

SO, please mark your calendars for Sunday, June 11! Let us come before the Lord singing for joy, and accompany him in the Eucharist with fervor and prayers for renewal of our faith in Him.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...”

JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price that others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for Stewardship with a grateful and generous heart.

Donate to the Lift Project!

This year I hope to furnish Birthline and Seeds of Hope with the cosmetic travel bags of toiletries for their clients. I am in need of hotel -size shampoo, soaps, and lotions, combs, tissue packets, tooth-brushes, toothpaste, emery boards, lip balms, cotton balls, and Q-tips. Any other amenities that would give these ladies a lift in spirits are appreciated as well. This will be my last year of doing this. It has nearly been 30 years and my mobility issues prevent me from getting out much. Your generosity has helped so much.

Thank you.

Please bring items to the parish office before June 15, and mark them LIFT PROJECT.

Questions? Call Stephenie Paquette at 317-359-6655.

Lift Project Update: I forgot to mention blank journals, as a need. Thank you to those who already brought items. Also, some gently used cosmetic bags are needed since I was not able to obtain any in Florida. I need teeth-cleaning items, and small size shampoos. I have plenty of combs and razors now. Any miscellaneous items will be given to local pantries which need them. - Again, thank you!
