Be sure to walk the grounds, admiring their handiwork. This year our grounds are part of the Irvington Garden Tour, June 25.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM
WEEK

Pray that business leaders would promote a culture that welcomes faith at work.

The Catholic Church calls the lay faithful to bring their faith to bear on all spheres of life. Christians are Christian not only when they pray or serve in a non-profit ministry. Catholics also seek to live out their faith in their work lives. Christians are not the only ones who should be able to live out their religion in a holistic way. All people should be free to allow faith to guide them in their daily affairs, even in work and business. Religious freedom conflicts can arise when an employee seeks accommodation for his or her practices, such as an exception to a dress code in order to wear certain religious clothing or a request to have certain days or times—like the Sabbath or certain times for prayer—accommodated in scheduling. Another kind of religious freedom conflict involves cases where the business itself runs afoul of some government policy. For example, a government may require employers to cover certain products or procedures in their healthcare plans that the employer believes to be immoral, or a government may require creative professionals to produce speech that violates their religious convictions. In all of these scenarios, a culture that embraces the divine gift of freedom will be one that makes as much space as possible for persons to participate in work life in accordance with their religious convictions.

Help with Watering the Garden

Due to the high temperatures and lack of rain, we are in need of assistance in keeping the garden beds watered. If you could give 1 to 2 hours a week to help out, please call Monica: 317-443-6914, or leave your name & number at the Parish Office: 317-356-7291.

Introduction to the Devout Life

St. Francis deSales didn't just cater to super-Catholics. He was interested in the spiritual growth of the average person. Read his book, Introduction to the Devout Life, on your own this summer and join us for a dinner and discussion of the book on July 29. A study guide of questions is available in the north entrance to the church. Contact Matthew to let him know you will participate! There is no electronic sign-up just yet...

“As you go, make this proclamation:
‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’”

MATTHEW 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to “repent.” Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants us to live Stewardship and to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

Children's Liturgy of the Word: Catechists Needed

It is a happy sight to see so many young disciples taking part in the Children's Liturgy of the Word during Mass! They get to hear the readings in language they can better understand and discuss what it means for their young lives. If you would like to be among our growing number of catechists who rotate leading CLOW sessions, contact Matthew to get some preparation to begin in the coming season, beginning in August.

Make a Difference. Become a Catechist!

The OLL Religious Education program needs more people to help with our events! We are currently short of help. - Roles include helping with Sunday Religious Education meetings for our younger students (K-7th), Confirmation preparation meetings for teens, RCIA meetings with adults or teens, or Children's Liturgy of the Word. Whether you choose to be a catechist-leader or an aide, your contribution will make a difference. – Talk with Matthew to find out more and to start getting ready!
