Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

This past Sunday at the 10 a.m. Mass we had an unexpected visitor. A man with a crown on his head and a cane in his hand came loudly up the main aisle toward the end of our communion procession.

For some present, it was more than likely an unpleasant experience, even frightening. With the communion song "We Shall Rise Again" as the aural background, the individual's very loud words were mostly unintelligible – both as he came forward and departed.

I thought that all those who approached him did an outstanding job of being kind, respectful, and yes, concerned for his and everyone's safety. Those who approached him did not escalate the situation by touching him – one of the "rules" we learned in our recent workshop on dealing with loud and mentally ill people.

Let us keep "the king" in prayer. He lives in the neighborhood. Apparently harmless.

Monday I was summoned for jury duty. The summons changed my day drastically. I had forgotten that I deferred it to this week!

I arrived at the Community Justice Center (CJC) at 7:45 a.m. I left at about 12:30 p.m. Once again, not chosen. Over 200 folks showed up for jury duty! They were a wonderful mix of citizens! They impressed me by their willingness, docility, smiles, and quiet conversations. Another moment to be thankful that we have such a system of justice that asks us citizens to participate – even if it ends in being sent home with the community's thanks for showing up!

Finally, I am away for a brief vacation. This weekend I am with Martha and Ken, Esther (also known as Frances), and Mary in Poplar Grove, IL. We are attending the play "Footloose" at the Starlight Theatre on the campus of Rock Valley College. Each summer Martha and Ken have season tickets, which they share with their children, friends and siblings. It is always a fun weekend when we gather for a play or musical!

When I return to Indy, I will be staying a few days with my sister, Mary. Last year during vacation we moved her in. Now, I just get to enjoy the comfort of her home.

On Friday, July 21, I will go to Fatima Retreat House for a 5-day directed retreat. A "directed retreat" offers 1 hour per day with a spiritual director/guide, leaving the other 23 hours each day for prayer, reading, walking, eating – and of course, the requisite nap.

Please keep me in prayer these next days as I, through the grace of God, family and a spiritual director, refresh body, mind and spirit.

Father Rick

“The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit.”

- MATTHEW 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues of Stewardship that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

Learn More About the Teachings of the Church

Do you have questions about joining the Catholic Church? Review or learn more about what the Catholic faith teaches and meet and inspire new seekers. Come to an RCIA meeting (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). Check out the RCIA schedule on the west entrance bulletin board to look for topics that are of interest to you. Contact Matthew Fallon in the parish office or email him at mfallon@ollindy.org to find out more information or call the parish office 317-356-7291. We begin regular discussion meetings on September 6.
