Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

1950 opened the 6th decade of the twentieth century. There were many historical events that year. One was a papal definition – a rather rare moment of the exercise of papal infallibility (as declared in 1870 at the First Vatican Council).

“On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII defined the Assumption of Mary to be a dogma of faith: ‘We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma that the immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory.’ The pope proclaimed this dogma only after a broad consultation of bishops, theologians and laity. There were few dissenting voices. What the pope solemnly declared was already a common belief in the Catholic Church. [Another such dogma was declared in 1854, the Immaculate Conception. This is pivotal in the apparition at Lourdes, in France, in 1858.]

“We find homilies on the Assumption going back to the sixth century. In following centuries, the Eastern Churches held steadily to the doctrine, but some authors in the West were hesitant. However, by the 13th century there was universal agreement. The feast was celebrated under various names— Commemoration, Dormition, Passing, Assumption—from at least the fifth or sixth century. Today it is celebrated as a solemnity.

“Scripture does not give an account of Mary’s assumption into heaven. Nevertheless, Revelation 12 speaks of a woman who is caught up in the battle between good and evil. Many see this woman as God’s people. Since Mary best embodies the people of both Old and New Testaments, her assumption can be seen as an exemplification of the woman’s victory.

“Furthermore, in 1 Corinthians 15:20, Paul speaks of Christ’s resurrection as the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

“Since Mary is closely associated with all the mysteries of Jesus’ life, it is not surprising that the Holy Spirit has led the Church to believe in Mary’s share in his glorification. So close was she to Jesus on earth, she must be with him body and soul in heaven.”

<https://www.franciscanmedia.org/saint-of-the-day/assumption-of-the-blessed-virgin-mary>

As we celebrate the Assumption this Tuesday, let us hold close, as did our faith ancestors, the gift of Mary as “theotokos” (God bearer), the gift of Mary as First Apostle, the gift of Mary as Mother of the Church.

Stewardship

*“He said, ‘Come.’
Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.”*

- MATTHEW 14:29

When we hear Jesus calling, do we respond as Stewards and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, we are walking on water! When we say “yes” to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

Fall Adult Scripture Study

The Adult Scripture Study this autumn will share the focus of the American Church's Eucharistic Revival – we will investigate The Eucharist In Scripture, and find the basis for our beliefs and practices surrounding Holy Communion. The study will be for 6 weeks, beginning September 28, the cost for the book is $20. There will be two sessions, depending on attendance: 2 p.m. Thursday afternoons, and 7:30 p.m. Thursday evenings. Sign up for this study at <https://tinyurl.com/23-AutumnStudySignUp>

Share Your Faith

The Confirmation group is looking for witnesses to share their own story at our meeting. Volunteers will speak one-on-one with candidates about how to incorporate the graces of the Holy Spirit, in your life since your own Confirmation. Also, how you see God at work in your life, and what it means to be a member of the Catholic Church. Talk with Matthew about helping our candidates be ready to live their faith after receiving the sacrament: mfallon@ollindy.org
