Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

Life is the most precious gift we have received. Our created life is a great good, spoken of in the Book of Genesis as "very good"

While the Book of Genesis also reveals the breaking of the relationship between Adam and Eve – and with God – still the creator, after announcing the consequences of this break, continues to care for the good of creation and all created life. Even the story of the Flood, though catastrophic, was meant to remind that God wanted to restore life, especially the life of right relationship between humanity and God.

The life we have in Christ is of the spirit. It, too, is gift – gratuitously given through his coming among us as one like us, ministering to humanity, dying for our sins, and rising so that we might have the hope of eternal life.

Such consistent attention by God to the gift we have received calls for a response on our part: to cherish life, care for life, invite others to the spiritual life. But before the latter can happen, we must do the former two.

Witness the charge we have been given in this quote from the bishops of our country and the Church universal.

"The dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society.

"The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching.

"In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and the use of the death penalty. The intentional targeting of civilians in war or terrorist attacks is always wrong. Catholic teaching also calls on us to work to avoid war. Nations must protect the right to life by finding increasingly effective ways to prevent conflicts and resolve them by peaceful means.

"We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person."

On this Respect Life Sunday, let us consider our call to action. To explore the fuller teaching, use the following link to go to the USCCB website: <https://tinyurl.com/catholic-teaching>

SCHOOL NEWS

Returning to school after the Fall Festival Week-end is like a double Monday. Many parish festivals occur during the summer months when school is not in session. Some would prefer that over trying to keep a school community focused during this week leading up to the festival, but there are benefits to being in school at festival time.

Our students not only anticipate festival fun, but they have the chance to witness the monumental efforts of so many who bring the festival to life. Some of their teachers are in charge of big parts of the weekend's events. Parents and other parishioners come and go from the property as they organize spaces and materials and receive deliveries. Fliers are posted in the hallways depicting our pastor asking in Uncle Sam fashion for volunteers.

Students also have the chance to participate in these efforts. Older students help arrange tables and chairs, bring in donations for kids' games, and sign up to volunteer to run the kids' games. Teachers help organize volunteer efforts among our older students into a friendly competition for House points.

It is true that some of the focus on academic learning might be diverted during festival week, but learning about serving our community is a good place for that focus to land.

Angie Therber
Principal

Stewardship

“Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves...”

Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe in Stewardship, everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

Confirmation Candidates: Our goal is to read the entire Gospel of Matthew by our next meeting, on 10/8. Our guest speaker, Sr. Sheila Marie will be asking you about Matthew’s Gospel.

OUTDOOR NATIVITY SILHOUETTES: ORDER NOW!

October 8, is the deadline to order your Outdoor Nativity silhouette. On sale now for $110. They will be available for pick-up on November 19, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. For more info, please see the weekly newsletter.

Religious Education Needs You!

This week, 2 of our four catechists for Sunday Religious Education classes will be unable to lead their groups. Having a second person for each group would keep the children’s learning moving along without a hiccup. Please consider joining our corps of leaders to spread the load, and keep the progress going!
