Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

Both/and. This is one of the principles of Catholic Christian theology, thought and living. I have spoken of it and written about it from time to time.

There is a scriptural equivalent: Ecclesiastes 3 – There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every affair under the heavens.

Consider this: there is both a time to speak and a time to be silent.

Our coming together for Sunday and Holyday Mass is a precious time at so many levels. Intimate time with the Lord in personal prayer, reflection, and communion. Communal time of greeting one another. And then, time with the Lord: in song, prayers, readings, coming forward for communion in our processing, and going forth to live and share what we have experienced in church.

Our coming together has a beginning. We enter the doors; ushers / hospitality folks greet us; we find our pew (usually the same place!) And as we gather, there is a time for silence and a time to speak.

Those moments for coming together are delicately balanced to nurture the personal and the communal reality of our Catholic Christian lives.

I am concerned that we are growing “out of balance”, however. We seem to have forgotten that brief conversations before Mass are meant to gather us even while they should protect the need for distance and muted silence for the benefit of those who are in silent prayer.

Since this is a “both/and” time, I want to encourage us to think about how loudly we talk, how far we are from the person to whom we are talking, and is the topic of our talk something that could wait until after Mass.

We have a planned moment for greeting one another after the bells stop ringing. The Cantor invites us to greet those around us whom we do not know (first) and then those whom we know. Then, we are urged to silence to prepare our minds and heart.

Please consider how you support the appointed times for silence and speaking. There is room for both.

Finally, a quote from the Holy Father to consider.

“On Wednesday, Pope Francis called out the common habit of chatting with people around you before Mass, stressing that this is a time for silent prayer, when we prepare our hearts for an encounter with the Lord.

‘When we go to Mass, maybe we arrive five minutes before, and we start to chit-chat with those in front of us,’ the Pope said Nov. 15, 2017. However, ‘it is not a moment for chit-chat.

‘It is a moment of silence for preparing ourselves for dialogue, a time for the heart to collect itself in order to prepare for the encounter with Jesus,’ he said, adding that ‘silence is so important.

Continuing his new catechesis on the Eucharist, the Pope recalled his message the week prior, that the Mass is not a show, but a place where we encounter the Lord. In this encounter, he said, silence is what ‘prepares us and accompanies us.’

Next week, I will continue the topic of silence and speaking – during Mass. Both have a clear place in how we worship during the Eucharistic liturgy.

Father Rick

Please visit our display in Bernadette Hall
Saturday & Sunday, November 4 & 5, after each Mass.

Blest Art will be visiting Our Lady of Lourdes parish on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. When Blest Art visits, we will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art. Cash, checks and all major credit cards are accepted.

2 Easy Ways to Share Your Faith

Pope Paul VI wrote that “modern (people) listen more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if (they do) listen to teachers it is because they are witnesses.” Please give your witness to our Confirmation candidates. It is at this age that most young people decide whether to hold to the faith and remain in the Church.

- 1 – share your witness individually, in person to candidates at our January 21, meeting.
- 2 – write a letter to the Confirmation group

In either action, you may share what your own Confirmation meant to you. Why you remain in Christ and in his Church. Also, how you respond to God’s grace of the fullness of the Holy Spirit and its gifts, which you received at Confirmation. Hearing different perspectives on the sacrament and living a Spirit-filled life will help them form their own understanding and response to God. Please respond with questions, letters, or to volunteer to:

mfallon@ollindy.org

We exist to serve. Through various agencies, ministries, and programs, including Catholic Charities and our Mother Theodore Catholic Academies, we care for the needs of the whole person, including physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual needs. Your gifts to the United Catholic Appeal allows us to:

- Feed those who are hungry and provide shelter for those in need
- Offer affordable counseling and mental health services to all ages
- Reach out to immigrants, refugees, and asylees
- Assist mothers who have chosen life for their babies
- Provide low-income and minority students from the heart of Indianapolis the solid foundation of a Catholic Education

Scan to watch a video about the importance of SERVING.

Share Your Faith with RCIA Seekers

Here is a way to fulfill your Christian obligation to evangelize without going door-to-door: share your faith with our RCIA participants who wish to join the Church. Beginning November 26, we will be excusing the catechumens from Mass (after the Liturgy of the Word) to discuss the readings for that day. We need 4-5 volunteers to lead the informative and faith-sharing discussions, on a rotating basis. A guidebook for the readings will be provided. Your involvement will help build the faith of our Catholic-curious learners, and help them meet more of the parish community! Talk with Matthew to serve God and the parish in this way, and thank you!

Help Support Our NCYC Participants

Help support our 11 high school students who will be attending the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) from November 16-18, 2023, in downtown Indianapolis. The cost for each teen to attend is $300 with a parish goal of $5,000 to cover additional costs. Teens who attend come back energized in their faith and ready to serve the Church. If you would like to contribute to help make the conference more affordable for our 11 participants there are a few ways to help.

- You can give online at tinyurl.com/OLLncyc23 or through OLL's Online Giving website.

- There are also envelopes at the doors of the church. Checks may be made out to Our Lady of Lourdes, with "NCYC" in the subject line.

Thank you for your generosity to the faith formation of our youth!

NCYC BAKE SALE October 28-29

Proceeds will benefit our OLL teens who will attend the National Catholic Youth Conference.

Help make our trip a success!

Stewardship

“Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.”

- MATTHEW 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “Stewards” of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

COMMUNION CALLS

SPOOKY ORGAN CONCERT

Admission is FREE!

But canned goods will be gratefully appreciated.

Donations benefit OLL's St. Vincent de Paul and the ICAN Food Pantry located at Downey Avenue Christian Church.

OUR LADY OF LOURDES
OCTOBER 22 AT 6PM

The Spooky Organ Concert is back, featuring Broadway standards, classic rock, and keyboard masterpieces celebrating "Songs and Dances of Death." Baritone Daniel Narducci returns, as do Dominic Duray, Erik Scull, OLL father-and-son power duo Tad and Heath Nelson, and the OLL Choir to close the evening with a few sing-alongs.

Support our NCYC Group Through Prayer and Fundraising

The 2023 National Catholic Youth Conference is less than a month away, and fundraising is in full swing. Please consider supporting OLL high school students preparing for this incredible pilgrimage experience. The group of eleven teens has set a financial goal of $5,000 to cover the cost of tickets, parking, meals, snacks, and tradable items, a popular Conference tradition.

Opportunities to support our participants include a Sock with Saints and Stickers sale from now until November 4th and a Bake Sale, October 28th and 29th, after Saturday evening and Sunday morning Masses.

In addition, donations may be made online using the links below or by dropping an envelope marked for NCYC in the collection basket at church. NCYC participants also request prayers and blessings as they prepare to encounter Christ, experience church, and to be empowered by discipleship, during NCYC 2023, November 16-28.
