Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

Less than a year ago, the bells in our church tower began to peal once again, reminding us of the passing of time (chronos or clock time) and calling us to worship and prayer (Kairos, or God time). They now lend a sonorous flavor to our immediate neighborhood. It has been a marvelous restoration!

There are other bells one might hear during Mass. In some churches, a bell announces the beginning of daily Mass (priest emerging from the sacristy). In some others, bells accompany the solemn moment of the elevation of the newly consecrated host (Body of the Lord) and chalice (Blood of the Lord) after the words of consecration.

This latter practice has roots in the Middle Ages. Churches then were often bustling places, everyone standing around close to each other. The priest was separated from the people not only by distance but by a rood screen (partially open, often decorated with the figures of saints). Then there was the distance from the screen to the altar attached to the wall of the apse, or standing away from the wall with a reredos backdrop (a good example of the latter is Sacred Heart Church on the near south side of Indianapolis).

Another factor which lent to the need for bells was the inaudible speaking (soto voce) of the priest over the bread and wine.

This solemn moment could easily go unnoticed. The large elevation of the consecrated host and wine needed a ritual sound to calm the bustling (and conversations) going on in the nave of the church. Thus, the introduction of the ringing of bells.

There was a preparatory bell: when the priest held his hands over the elements (visible only to the servers and deacon) -- calling down the Spirit (epiclesis) upon these elements -- a bell was rung to prepare the folks. "Pay attention" was the message. (In later centuries, when silent decorum was more prominent due to pews and prayer books in worshippers' hands, the bell interrupted those praying from their books to attention. Eyes were raised. Hearts and minds were opened.

The bell announcing the completed consecratory words and elevation of the Body / Blood of the Lord punctuated the air to remind folks upon whom they were gazing: the Lord present!

As we have experienced since the late 1960's, the words of the Eucharistic Prayers are audible. They are spoken in the language of the place, spoken loudly, often amplified so as to be heard.

The ringing of the bells no longer serves a practical need. Yet knowing how our minds can wander and admitting of our need to be reminded of what is taking place in our midst in the sacramental miracle -- and in conjunction with the Eucharistic Revival -- a re-introduction of this devotional practice seems apt.

The Eucharistic Revival Committee asked that the Liturgy Committee consider this addition. The Liturgy Committee agreed. Thus, on the First Sunday of Advent (December 2-3), the "consecration bells" will be heard during the elevation at all liturgies here at Our Lady of Lourdes.

More will be said about this as we move toward that date. Until then, let us continue to gather faithfully for Mass, the ultimate reminder of Christ's sacrifice / memorial / meal which makes us who we are as Church.

Father Rick

Join the RCIA Team!

People learn about the Catholic Faith and prepare to join the Church through the RCIA process; you can help them along the way in different manners. You can find good, independent training at FranciscanAtHome.com in the Catechumenal (RCIA) Track of trainings. Go to www.FranciscaAtHome.com, create a free personal account, and identify your sponsoring groups: the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, and then our OLL parish. Start watching and learning and then join us for RCIA meetings! See Matthew Fallon to help (mfallon@ollindy.org)

Help Break Open the Word for RCIA Participants

Have you ever wanted to go a little deeper into the meaning of the Mass readings? You can get a copy of "Breaking Open The Lectionary" to understand the readings more fully! You can then use this knowledge to help form the understanding of our RCIA participants. Beginning on Sunday, November 26, we will be excusing the catechumens from Mass (after the Liturgy of the Word) to discuss the readings for that day; we need 4-5 volunteers to lead the informative and faith-sharing discussion, on a rotating basis. Your involvement will help build the faith of our intentional Catholic learners, and help them meet more of the parish community! Talk with Matthew to serve God and the parish in this way, and thank you!

We are... United
in the Eucharist

As a Church, we are stronger together. The impact of your gift is essential to the people of our archdiocese and the mission given to us by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

YOUR GIFT HELPS MANY FIND MERCY, FORGIVENESS, AND PEACE.

"Adopting a child is an act of love, offering the gift of a family to someone who has none. It is important to insist that legislation help facilitate the adoption process, above all in the case of unwanted children, in order to prevent their abortion or abandonment."

Amoris Laetitia, par 179. Pope Francis

SCHOOL NEWS

A few weeks ago, I shared photos and updates about the work of our student government. We enjoyed lots of fun thanks to their Spirit Week planning. Student government is not the only club that is in full swing with extracurricular learning and experiential activities.

Mr. Asher's drama club is exploring ideas for short skits and a longer spring play. We have made a connection with the Heartland Film Festival's Education outreach who will visit to present about possible careers in the film industry. Mr. Ditzler is leading students in an online gaming club where students enjoy the fun of gaming while learning how to participate responsibly. Mr. Black is moderating a board game club. Mr. Davis's media club has been circulating among staff conducting interviews for a "getting to know our school" video production. Thanks to parent volunteer, Mr. Corey VanDeVanter, we now have a Jiu Jitsu club that meets after school.

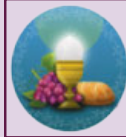

At Our Lady of Lourdes School, we believe that offering these types of experiences help build skills that enhance academics, our understanding of each other, and leadership. The fun factor is also a plus! We are very grateful to the teachers, parents, and parishioners who help us provide these opportunities for our OLL Lyons.

Angie Therber,
Principal

Help Support Our NCYC Participants

Help support our 11 high school students who will be attending the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) from November 16-18, 2023, in downtown Indianapolis. The cost for each teen to attend is $300, with a parish goal of $5,000, to cover additional costs. Teens who attend come back energized in their faith and ready to serve the Church. If you would like to contribute to help make the conference more affordable for our 11 participants, there are a few ways to help.

- You can give online at tinyurl.com/OLLncyc23 or through OLL's Online Giving website.
- There are also envelopes at the doors of the church. Checks may be made out to Our Lady of Lourdes, with "NCYC" in the subject line.

Thank you for your generosity to the faith formation of our youth!

Stewardship

*“Therefore, stay awake,
for you know neither the day nor the hour.”*

MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts in Stewardship today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

URGENT NEED FOR CHILDREN'S COATS

Winter is right around the corner and we have a shortage of children's winter coats. Please check your closets! If you have gently used or new children's winter coats sizes 2T-18 for both boys and girls, we would appreciate your donations. You can drop them off at the Distribution Center dock (1201 E. Maryland St.) Monday-Saturday from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. or at one of our blue donation boxes around the city. (<https://www.svdindy.org/i-want-to-help/find-a-clothing-bin/>) We are also in need of sponsors to help support our Dream a Little Dream mattress program benefitting children and their families. Learn more about this program and how you can help at: <https://www.svdindy.org/dreams/> Thank you for helping us keep children warm and in their own beds this winter.

Independent Scripture Study for Women:

Take up and Read! Inviting women to read, to ponder, and to respond to the Word of the Lord. First, we take up and read the word of God daily. We know that the Bible is God's story for us, and we want to live in the center of that holy narrative every day. Through careful scripture study—both in print and on video—we seek the will of the Lord. God's word gives us words for one another, a common language of love in Him. We emphasize beginning the day with lectio divina and letting the fifth step -actio - drive all aspects of living out the true call of an authentic Catholic woman. Plus check out all the other resources they have to offer. To learn more, click the link: <https://www.takeupandread.org/>
