Pastor's Corner

My dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

What is necessary for Mass? What are the absolute basics? You may have wondered about that; or maybe you have not.

The most basic elements are bread and wine. The bread must be unleavened wheat. The wine must be grape wine (no other fruit additives). These are "the matter" for this sacrament.

The "words of institution" are the form. They are the words of Jesus found in the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke). In our thirteen Eucharistic Prayers, these words are identical.

These two – matter and form – are essential for the Mass to be "valid" and "efficacious." But there is more for the Mass to be "Mass," both valid and efficacious.

A priest.

The person with the "fullness of orders" is the bishop. (Sacrament of Orders – bishop, priest, deacon). To "ordain" a priest or deacon requires a bishop. He himself is bishop/priest/deacon. When he presides at a Mass, he is acting in his priestly role.

Bishops are the successors of the apostles. It is their responsibility to provide priests to celebrate the Mass.

A priest does not act on his own, nor is the "Mass" his personal possession. He is instructed at his ordination to celebrate the Mass with the mind of the Church under the guidance of the local bishop.

But more so, the priest acts "in persona Christi capitis" – in the person of Christ who is the head.

A priest is not "another Christ" – there is only one Christ. It states very clearly in the Letter to the Hebrews: there is only one High Priest (Christ); there is only one "sacrifice" (the Last Supper / Calvary) in which all subsequent Masses participate.

When we hear in any of the Eucharistic Prayers a reference to "memorial," the word helps us to understand this extension of the original into all Masses. Thus, the Mass is a "living memorial." And of course, as the "Last Supper" indicates, it is a meal in which we share in the original.

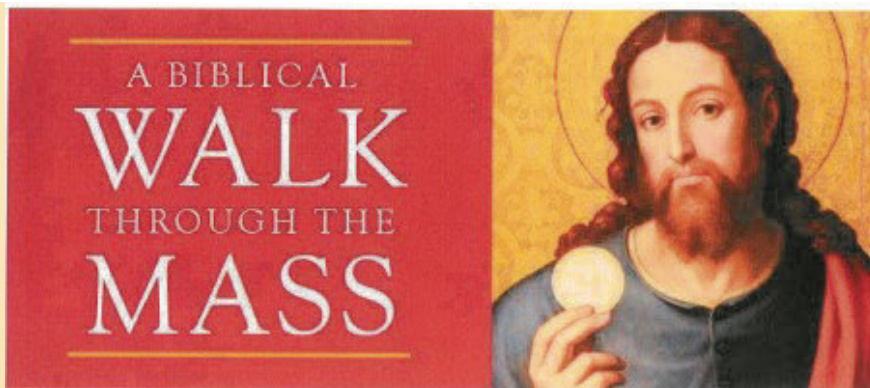

There is one more element that must be considered: the Assembly, the gathering of the faithful for the celebration. It is not necessary for "validity" or "efficacy."

Witness the Vietnamese bishop confined in a prison camp for years. He celebrated Mass alone, with the elements smuggled to him by a guard. He had to celebrate quickly, using the smallest piece of bread and smallest amount of wine and the words of institution – lest he be discovered and punished! He was alone, using "the essentials" only. The exceptional circumstance dictated what could be done.

The exception is never the rule. Thus, the Assembly – with full, conscious, and active participation – is very important for the Mass – the Eucharistic liturgy – to be a communal celebration (as was the Last Supper).

Elements, Words, Priest, Assembly. The basics for the celebration of Eucharist.

Father Rick

SCHOOL NEWS

Is anybody else kind of ok with this bitter cold snap we are experiencing? At least it now feels like I remember an Indiana winter should be. Anyone who has worked in traditional education also knows that Indiana winter, this time between Christmas and Spring Break, is a very challenging time of year for teaching and learning. It's gray, dreary, cold, and dark for many hours a day. Yet there is still so much to learn!

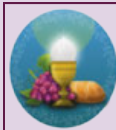

The dedicated teaching staff at OLL knows how to power through the doldrums. Early in February, we worked for half a day on plans related to all things progress-generating. We continued to analyze our school mission statement to update it for the 2020s (watch for a chance to give input later this spring and early summer). School Improvement Plan updates are due at the Office of Catholic Schools in mid-January, so we gathered evidence of progress related to our Mission and Catholic Identity and our Academic Excellence goals. We completed plans for Catholic Schools Week celebrations. Our math standards analysis and alignment process made great progress.

The students likely have no idea of all the hard work that creates the classroom experiences they enjoy, but it surely brightens up the days during this otherwise dreary time of year. Stop by our Open House after Mass today to see how this work shows up in the classrooms!

Who Is Your Favorite, or Most Interesting Saint?

Our 2nd graders have begun their preparations to begin receiving the Holy Eucharist. Part of these will be to discuss our connection with the Communion of Saints, at our retreat. Please write to Matthew Fallon mfallon@ollindy.org about the saint(s) most significant to you and why. A short paragraph is sufficient, so we can build their awareness and appreciation of this "cloud of witnesses!"

Stewardship

"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties."

1 CORINTHIANS 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future. Then, in Stewardship spend your time praying instead of worrying.

Confirmation Candidates: What questions do you have regarding the faith and the Church? Let's discuss your questions in our February 18, meeting. Please submit these questions ahead of time to: mfallon@ollindy.org so that we will be ready to fully explore them. It is good to explore your uncertainties prior to professing your belief in the Church's teachings.
