When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

Well, it has happened again! February is upon us. And this year, it boasts of an additional day! Ah, the travails of the calendar!

The first reading from Job and the Gospel passage from Mark both speak to the reality of human misery, struggle, and suffering. Amid those burdens, we are at times "at sea," feeling tossed about and suffering a great loss of control.

As Peter slid beneath the waves while walking toward Jesus on the water, we cry out! And the Lord reaches out his hand and draws us up and into the boat, where he joins us.

The all-powerful God, revealed in Christ's command of chaos, is truly present to us. No matter the circumstances.

St. Basil of Caesarea (Basil the Great), a bishop, pastor, and theologian of the 4th Century, purportedly penned a prayer that speaks of God's powerful and caring qualities. Perhaps this short prayer will be of comfort to us all in our life ahead.

Steer the ship of my life, good Lord, to your quiet harbor, where I can be safe from the storms of sin and conflict.

Show me the course I should take.

Renew in me the gift of Discernment, so that I can always see the right direction in which I should go.

And give me the strength and the courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough and the waves are high,

knowing that through enduring hardship and danger,

we shall find comfort and peace.

Father Rick

SCHOOL NEWS

It's the time of year when we spread the word about all of the great things we have to offer at Our Lady of Lourdes School to families who are looking for the best option for their children's education.

Please help spread the word about anything you find wonderful about our parish school.

If you need some ideas, here are a few:

- Our Catholic Faith is the basis for all we do, with special emphasis on prayer and living the Gospel teachings.
- Our academic curriculum is aligned from grades preschool through eight with the Indiana State Academic Standards.
- The materials we use to teach are regularly evaluated with alignment in mind.
- There is no teaching staff anywhere more dedicated to the mission and vision of Our Lady of Lourdes School and the community in which we serve.
- We offer a range of opportunities in fine arts, student government, athletics, service to others, student-driven club opportunities, and prayer opportunities.

Information for enrolling students can be found on the school website, www.ollindy.org We hope others feel the same excitement that our school staff feels during this time of planning for next school year. If so, please share it with anyone who may be interested in joining us for 2024/2025.

COMMUNION CALLS

To add someone's name to the Prayer Vine, please contact Laura Hughes at: vineollstb@gmail.com

Who Is Your Favorite, or Most Interesting Saint?
Our 2nd graders have begun their preparations to begin receiving the Holy Eucharist. Part of these will be to discuss our connection with the Communion of Saints, at our retreat. Please write to Matthew Fallon mfallon@ollindy.org about the saint(s) most significant to you and why. A short paragraph is sufficient, so we can build their awareness and appreciation of this "cloud of witnesses!"

Stewardship

“Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed...He told them, ‘ Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.’”
- MARK 1:35, 38

In today's Gospel reading we see a perfect example of Stewardship. Jesus gives His time to do all that God wishes - healing the sick and preaching. But before He begins, Jesus takes time to be alone with God in prayer. It is through prayer, spending time with God, that we are given the graces needed to do what He wishes us to do. Praying before acting is a great habit to develop.

Confirmation Candidates: What questions do you have regarding our faith and our Church? Let's discuss your questions in our February 18, meeting. Please submit these questions ahead of time to: mfallon@ollindy.org so that we will be ready to fully explore them. It is good to explore your uncertainties prior to professing your belief in the Church's teachings.
