Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

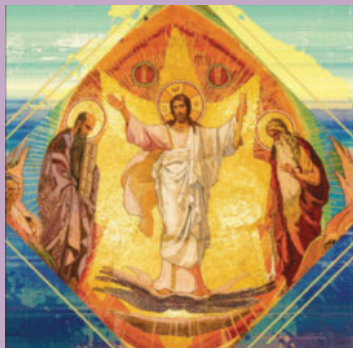

Here are two quotes about the Transfiguration, the Gospel passage for today. I hope that they help us all with our Lenten hope for our own transfiguration.

“In the past, every icon painter began his or her career by reproducing the scene of the transfiguration, not to escape into some imaginary paradise, but to die to self by opening the self to Beauty crucified. The destiny of every Christian is written between two mountains: from Calvary to the mountain of the transfiguration. The face of the living God is to be seen in the faces of those who listen to Christ's word and are transformed by it.”

The Saint Andrew Bible Missal, Copyright 1982, William J. Hirten Co., Inc.

“We of the Taizé community look upon the transfiguration above all as the celebration of that presence of Christ which takes charge of everything in us and transfigures even that which disturbs us about ourselves. God penetrates those hardened, incredulous, even disquieting regions within us, about which we really do not know what to do. God penetrates them with the life of the Spirit and acts upon those regions and gives them God's own face.”

Spring Benefit 2024: You Can Help!!

Would you be interested in helping with the OLL School Spring Benefit? This is the school's largest fundraiser and we need volunteers to help make this the most successful year yet! You don't need any experience: just a friendly face and a helping hand. Your support will directly contribute to the betterment of our teachers, students, and school infrastructure. Your help will contribute to vital programs like art, music, Spanish, physical education, and technology. If you are interested in helping, have questions, comments or ideas, please email Stephanie Sponcel at ssponcel@netlogx.com or text 317-490-7169.

Share Your Faith - Support RCIA Participants

We pledged our support to our current catechumens and candidates in the RCIA process – that's great! We still need a sponsor for one of the men who is excited to join the Church. You don't need to be a theologian, just have a heart to share your faith in God. You can start planning to support next year's participants as well. Contact Matthew (mfallon@ollindy.org) to volunteer to touch the lives of new Catholic parishioners by providing hospitality, sharing your thoughts and witness, presenting on a topic of faith that is an interest to you. There are so many things you could do.

Socialaires

Socialaires will be going to Blueberry Hill for breakfast, brunch, or lunch on February 29. We'll meet in the west parking lot of church at 10 a.m. We will be leaping forward from there to celebrate Leap Day. Please confirm your intention to join us by contacting Diane Beasley 317-527-7946 by Monday, February 26.

Birthline Baby Shower: Lasts Throughout February!

Many lovely items have been donated to Birthline and we are most grateful. The Birthline Baby Shower will run through all of February. If you have donations, the bassinet is in the northeast corner of the main vestibule. - Also, yarn is available to knit or crochet baby items for Birthline. Contact the parish office: 317-356-7291 for additional information.

SCHOOL NEWS

As a Catholic elementary school within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, we are afforded lots of autonomy to decide how to teach the required Indiana Academic Standards. We are, however, required to assess, or test, the students in several ways on their mastery of those standards. The NWEA Map testing system is a series of three tests that we are required to administer throughout the year, commonly referred to as benchmark testing.

All teaching is about helping individual students continue to grow in their learning, so the teachers use information from the benchmark testing to inform their instruction. To really start looking at progress closely, our administration and staff set a school goal for student growth in reading and math. Through staff discussions, we decided that it is time to encourage students to think a little more about what actions they can take to improve their learning.

Teachers at every grade level from kindergarten to 8th grade are helping students set their own goal score for the spring NWEA Map test. Of course, this process looks much different from the lower grades to the upper grades. What is similar among them all is that students are being encouraged to think about where they are academically and where they want to go. We are excited to see the results this spring.

Angie Therber, Principal

OLL Students Seek Pen Pals: Be One Today!

The OLL School is starting a pen pal program with the OLL parish. OLL has nearly fifty 3rd - 8th graders interested in participating and we need that many parishioners to volunteer as pen pals. Each month, you will receive a note from your assigned student through the parish office. You will then reply to the student by either mailing in your letter or dropping it off to the parish office.

Full names and addresses will be kept confidential. If you would like to participate, reach out to the parish office by phone at 317-356-7291 or email parishsecretary@ollindy.org. Please respond by Monday, February 19. After that date, you will receive more information on the pen pal program and the first letter from your pen pal! Thank you for your consideration in this wonderful opportunity to strengthen the relationship with our school and give the children this wonderful opportunity!

Who Is Your Favorite, or Most Interesting Saint?

Our 2nd graders have begun their preparations to begin receiving the Holy Eucharist. Part of these will be to discuss our connection, with the Communion of Saints, at our retreat. Please write to Matthew Fallon mfallon@ollindy.org about the saint(s) most significant to you and why. A short paragraph is sufficient, so we can build their awareness and appreciation of this "cloud of witnesses!" Please submit paragraphs by Easter Sunday.

Thank you!

Stewardship

“Here I am!” he answered.”

- GENESIS 22:11

It is easy to say, “Here I am, Lord,” when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say “Here I am, Lord,” when a neighbor needs our help, or when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times Stewards are called when it’s not convenient for us. Discipleship is not easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.
