Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

As we embark upon Holy Week, we do so with palm branches in hand and voices raised in "Hosannah!"

In our local climate, it might seem more practical to use ewe or pine branches. I am sure some developing regions of the world do use indigenous plants, for palms would be a costly imported luxury. But we hold palms.

This ancient Middle Eastern tradition allowed folks of little means to rejoice – for a military triumph, for the honoring of king or local leader, and for festive religious celebrations and processions to Temple.

In our culture we might use a flag, a banner hoisted high, or a cell phone light in a darkened arena to show our admiration or devotion.

But today, Palm Sunday, we are Judaeo-Christians connected to our ancestors by leafy symbol and vocal praise. We are sharing, as it were, in a "living memorial."

Many have walked the perimeter of churches this Lenten season following in the footsteps of the Lord's Passion; so we now stand in our pews acclaiming the Messiah who will walk, all too soon, the Via Dolorosa.

There are texts that follow from the Hebrew Testament that underpin this custom. Perhaps before (or after) you experience the proclamation of Mark's account of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, a quiet reflection may root your experience more faithfully and fully.

You shall take the fruit of majestic trees,
branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees,
and willows of the brook;
and you shall rejoice before the Lord your God.
(Leviticus 23:40)

Your solemn processions are seen, O God,
the procession of my God, my King,
into the sanctuary –
the singers in front, the musicians last,
between them girls playing tambourines. (Psalm 68:24-25)

Lift up, O gates, your lintels;
reach up, you ancient portals,
that the king of glory may come in. (Psalm 24:9)

Father Rick

Our teachers and staff are devoted to our students' faith formation, academic excellence, and service to others. - The principal must be a practicing Catholic, is the chief administrative officer of the school, and is responsible to the parish pastor. The ideal candidate will have a faith-based vision for Catholic culture, collaboration, academic excellence, professional development, community engagement, stewardship of resources, and synergy among East Deanery parish and school partners. # Stewardship

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'"

— MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Every day we pass by someone in need. Pray for the strength and courage to live Stewardship by being the answer to someone's prayer.
