PRAY THE ROSARY WITH US

AT HOME OR IN CHURCH:
TUESDAYS/THURSDAYS
AT 5:30 P.M.

Pastor's Corner

My dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

Blessed New Year! This greeting is more in keeping with our Catholic-Christian hopes and wishes. Yes, may any blessing you receive this new year be a cause for thanksgiving, especially for God's goodness to you.

This morning during my time of prayer, I noticed something which brought me up short. Attentiveness.

More than once during the sacrament of reconciliation, young and old alike have confessed "distraction during Mass." With folks around us, colors, sounds, and so many words, such distractions are understandable.

But what of attentiveness in personal prayer? This invited me to ask some questions.

Is devotion, religion, faith in the background? Or are they in the foreground? These came to me as I finished the sign of the cross and found myself filling my cup of coffee.

This led me to recall talking to someone while typing on a computer. (The parish staff will attest to this!) They are in the background, as the computer image or text is in my foreground. If I were to turn from the computer screen to face them, they would be in the foreground, with the screen in the background.

These are two habits of mine. Morning prayer with my coffee carafe easily at hand. A conversation with a staff person or volunteer while my fingers ply the keys.

Get the stimulant into the cup. Get the job at hand completed.

And so I return to the original focus: is devotion, religion, faith in life just in the background? Is it true in your life?

God is not in the background, even if we so place him. For us to have a prayerful relationship with the God who has loved us first, it is ours to place God in the foreground. If we treat God in this way, I do believe that we will treat one another in like manner. And pay more attention to how devotion, religion and faith are integral to our living in Christ.

In the Friday Newsletter of 27 December, one section addressed new year's resolutions. I believe I have stumbled upon mine for 2025. Perhaps we can share this resolution.

Father Rick

Help Bring Someone Into the Parish!

We are looking for people to help with a function of the OCIA process (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults). From now until Easter, the catechumens taking part in the process will be dismissed from Mass after the homily, to discuss the background and meaning of the readings for the day. We would like more people to facilitate this discussion so that the catechumens receive deeper insight and faith sharing from others, and get to meet more of their fellow parishioners. A preparation book is available for you to share Church teaching about the readings, to go along with your experience living Catholic! Talk to Matthew to find out more and to sign up!

Consecration to the Holy Family

In December, we invite each family to devote themselves to the ideal familial love set by Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Prayer cards for the Consecration of the Holy Family have been provided by the Knights of Columbus. Please see the tables at the entrances of the church.

- Five suggested steps before praying the Consecration to the Holy Family:
1. Discuss how you might want Joseph and Mary to pray for our family.
  2. Ask Jesus to help each of the kids in your family how to grow in age, grace and wisdom.
  3. Ask forgiveness of each other in the family and, if possible, receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
  4. Focus during the Christmas season on helping someone else.
  5. Pray each day that God will bless your family.

“They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.”

(MATTHEW 2:11)

What gifts do Christian Stewards give to the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold - we should reflect Christ's wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense - represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh - is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.
