Pastor's Corner

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish,

Introverts like me have ideas or information in their brains that, after shared with a few people, think that everyone knows what was shared. NOT!

I have encountered that misconception on my part numerous times recently. People ask me: Where will you be living? What will you be doing with yourself? Will you be traveling? Will we see you in the future?

Here are the responses to these questions.

I will be living on the northwest side, across west 86th Street from Ascension St. Vincent Hospital. Initially my sister Mary and I will be living in her two-bedroom apartment. The plan beyond this is to obtain in the same complex a three-bedroom townhouse. This two-stage process will necessitate renting a storage facility for both some of her things and some of mine.

I will be continuing the ecumenical and interreligious ministry for the Archdiocese. The hope is that I can do this two days a week, while I continue to write for the Criterion.

In addition, I have agreed to work with the St. Meinrad Permanent Deacon program in the discernment year. I will be teaching a 6-hour, one day workshop on Ecumenism and Evangelization. St. Meinrad has several dioceses who rely on St. Meinrad's deacon preparation program.

And of course, I will be helping at parishes – weekdays and weekends. I have 4 weddings already scheduled after July 2! Once six months have passed, I will be available to help Father Jude here at Lourdes as needed.

I hope to be able to read a bit more leisurely and make more time for family and friends. Little traveling is planned, as I must learn to live on a reduced income.

Before I retire, I will share my contact information with you – email and new address – so that we can keep in touch.

Father Rick

SCHOOL NEWS

Friday marked the end of the 2024-2025 school year. For many students, they either focus on the soon-to-be tasted freedom from all things school or their thoughts about high school days to come. If we look back over our shoulders, we will remember the many accomplishments we stacked up to get to this point. We have much to cheer about, so Thursday morning before field day, we set aside time for a pep rally to do just that!

Here is a list of a few of those accomplishments of which we are so proud:

- 56 kickball city runners-up
- CYO music contest superior band rating and many individual awards
- New CYO track records set
- 56 boys volleyball city champs
- Cadet boys volleyball city champs
- As of today, undefeated Eastside Crusader baseball team
- New National Jr. Honor Society club
- New AV club presenting the first ever OLL Film Festival
- 3rd-5th grade girls preparing to run a 5k with Girls on the Run
- Five 8th graders have excelled so well at their Secina High School Honors Algebra Class that they are exempt from the final exam
- AND A 100% PASS RATE FOR THIRD GRADE IREAD TESTING!

Cheers to the past year, and we look forward to more to shout about in 25-26.

Angie Therber

To All of Our Students, Teachers and School Staff:

Stewardship

"...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."
(JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Stewards make God their first choice and not their last resort.

Carrie Newcomer with Gary Walters

1:30 P.M., Bishop Chartrand Memorial Chapel, Marian Hall, Marian University, Indianapolis, Indiana

Carrie has been described as a "prairie mystic" by the Boston Globe and one who "asks all the right questions" by Rolling Stone Magazine. She has 19 nationally released albums, several books of poetry and essays, an Emmy for her PBS special, and a much-needed, important online presence among her numerous credits. Recent appearances have included PBS' Religion and Ethics and Krista Tippett's On Being, and collaborations with revered author Parker J. Palmer. A resident of the Bloomington, Indiana area, Carrie performs and gives workshops and retreats the country over (and occasionally abroad), educating and advocating for people and causes for which she is especially devoted.

Gary, a renowned jazz pianist and composer living in Indianapolis and performing throughout the U.S., began teaching jazz history and theory in 2000 at Butler University and leading jazz combos and the jazz band. Over the years, Walters has become well known in Indiana music circles for the variety of his work—with the jazz quintet Small Talk; as a sideman for jazz musician Cathy Morris and acoustic performer with Carrie Newcomer. He is a founding member of the Icarus Ensemble and has played pop concerts with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. Gary has worked with the Feinstein Foundation's Great American Songbook competition. He was inducted into the Indianapolis Jazz Hall of Fame in 2011.
